1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. The following changes to the drawings have been approved by the examiner: in Fig. 1, blocks "15, "16" and "17" should be functionally labelled. In order to avoid abandonment of the application, applicant must make these above drawing changes.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to show or fairly suggest a receiver (a switching circuit, a control circuit, television) and a method having the combinations as claimed, including a first input for receiving a first signal, a second input for receiving a second signal, a switching circuit with at least two first switches to be activated in a first mode and with at least two second switches to be activated in a second mode, and a control circuit for controlling the switching circuit, characterized in that at least one of the first switches and at least one of the second switches together isolate at least one of the inputs from the other, with the control circuit supplying a first control signal to the first switches and supplying a second control signal to the second switches, as recited in the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
